

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grammar Exercise – Conjunction

Exercise 1

In each of these sentences, add in one of the two connectives given. Only one option is appropriate.

1. However / Furthermore

We went to the market to buy groceries. (However), there were no eggs.

2. Even though / In addition

He is a very nice person to live with. (In addition), he can teach you English.

3. Moreover / So

Don't go to Greece in August – it is very hot. (Moreover), you would be far away from home.

4. However / Besides

I know that Mario is handsome. (However), he is quite annoying.

5. Besides / While

Tell her not to go. She won't reach the concert in time. (Besides), the band is terrible.

6. so that / moreover

She went to the shop (so that) she could buy some milk.

7. Although / Therefore

(Although) I don't know Sandra very well, I have always liked her.

8. nevertheless / also

Tonight I watched television. I (also) read a book.

9. When / While

(When) Michael gets back, we can play tennis with him.

10. Besides / So

I don't want to travel by plane. I am scared of flying. (Besides), it is more expensive.

Exercise 2

Fill in the blanks with a connective from the five choices given in each question.

1. However / In addition / So that / Besides / When

There are no biscuits left. (However), I can offer you a cup of tea.

We met yesterday (so that) we could swap jumpers.

I felt very cold (when) I left my house without a thick coat.

2. When / In addition / Although / As a result / Besides

Walking to school is good for the environment. (In addition), it keeps you fit.

I was speaking to James (when) he fell over suddenly!

(Although) the roads are very busy, it is easy to cycle into the city.

3. While / Even though / Also / Therefore

We cannot buy any apples today. (Therefore), we can't make apple pie.

Matthew has trouble understanding French (even though) he has studied it for years.

Andrew bought some apples. He (also) bought some pears and carrots.