When I Grow Up

When I grow up, I want to be a movie star! I would like to live in Hollywood, and to act in lots of different types of film. I would have a huge house with a swimming pool, and a driver to take me anywhere that I want to go. I have always enjoyed acting as it allows me to use my imagination (想像力). Two years ago I acted in a play at school — it was the most fun thing that I have ever done. I played the part of a detective who was trying to solve a crime (破案).

Actually, I would also like to be a detective when I grow up. I have always been good at solving puzzles, and so I think that I would make a good detective (偵探). My dad works as a policeman, which is similar, and so he could teach me how to do it. The detective in the play at school had to work out who had robbed (搶劫) a bank, and it turned out to be the local doctor.

I think that I would quite like to be a doctor when I grow up too. Doctors are always helping people, which I think would be a wonderful thing to do. It's a hard job though, and it requires (需要) many years of training. I don't know if I would be good enough to do it.

I don't know which job I would most like to do, but I've got lots of time before I have to decide. Until then, I'm just going to enjoy myself.
