Section 1      Comprehension I (14 marks)

Read the following article carefully and answer the questions in complete sentences.

Below is a story about a Pirate called Pete.

Pete the Pirate (海盜)

Pete was not the most famous pirate in the world. In fact, no one had ever heard of him, mainly (主要) because he was the worst pirate in history. He had never found any treasure (寶藏), he had never captained (指揮) a ship and, worst of all, he didn't even have a pet parrot. He had wanted to explore the ocean looking for treasure since he was a little boy, but he had never been able to afford to buy a ship and he didn't want to steal one like most other pirates.

One day, he was about to finally give up and go to work as a chef (廚師) in the local pub (酒館) (he was a skilled cook) when something unexpected happened. As he was walking along the beach, his shoe hit something hard under the sand. "It's probably (大概) just a rock..." thought Pete, but he felt compelled (被迫) to examine it. He brushed away (掃開) the sand that was covering it and then froze (呆) in shock. He had found a treasure chest (寶箱).

Immediately Pete hauled it out of the sand and ran straight back to his room, faster than he ever had. When he arrived, he placed the chest carefully down on his table. He used a hammer (鎚) to smash (打碎) open the lock, and then he waited, savouring (細味) the moment. Finally, he opened the lid. He expected gold or diamonds (鑽石). Suddenly his eyes beheld (望到)...

Coconuts.

"Well," Pete said to himself, "perhaps this is a sign that I should become a chef after all..."
