

Vocabulary Exercise 1

Fill in the blanks with the suitable words.

1. Stay optimistic / positive even when you are facing difficulties and don't let pessimistic thoughts occupy you.
2. An intelligent person may make a wrong decision even he is clever most of the time.
3. If you are considerate, you should work hard and don't let your parents worry about you after they come back from work.
4. A lot of parents are very proactive these days. They give their toddlers art lessons and make them learn English words when they are one year old.
5. President Obama has given an eloquent appeal for support.
6. The diligent mother works day and night, hoping to earn a bit more money for her baby's future.
7. You cannot expect a miser to be generous.
8. You are so creative! I could never dream of making my own clothes.
9. The loyal fans of Obama gave him unyielding support although his policy could not successfully create jobs for the Americans.

Vocabulary Exercise 2

Fill in the blanks with the suitable words.

1. Peter is eloquent enough to win the debate next month.
2. Mary is very intelligent. She can solve all the mathematical problems on the list within 15 minutes.
3. Derek is a creative boy. He changed this old rusty tin into a beautiful vase by wrapping with some colourful woollen threads.
4. Tony was so proactive that he had evacuated the villagers before the volcano erupted.

5. John never gives up when he comes across difficulties. This unyielding character paved the way for his success.
6. Be optimistic! Things may not be that bad as you think.
7. Mr. Chan is a generous man. He has donated 1 million dollars to help the victims of the earthquake.
8. If you want to make good decisions, you should not be reckless. Instead you have to be levelheaded.
9. John works round the clock every day. He is an industrious worker.
10. The headmistress is so considerate that she allowed my son to take the lift after he had hurt his leg so that he did not have to walk all the way up with his crutches.

Vocabulary Exercise 3

Fill in the blanks with the suitable words.

1. Evan is optimistic about his future, he is never afraid of any difficulties ahead.
2. Even if you are dim-witted, you can still get good academic results if you are diligent/industrious.
3. If you have chosen your future career path you should be unyielding, not giving up easily.
4. Jessica is known as "Miss Caring" in her class as she is considerate of everyone.
5. Being intelligent is the Gift of God, you have to use it in a right way to contribute to the society.
6. A levelheaded person can stay calm and think of ways out during times of danger.
7. A leader needs to be eloquent to gain people's support by his words.
8. Edison must be a creative person to invent so many things in his whole life that benefit the whole world.

9. Stay positive during difficult times and do not give up easily, then you will get your reward in the end.
10. It is impossible to complete all the work even if I am industrious/diligent and work restlessly.
11. Mr. Sun Yat Sen was strong-willed/unyielding in fighting for democracy in China for so many years.
12. You need to be quick-witted to win in this Mathematics competition, as it demands immediate calculations to difficult problems.
13. Benjamin is able to analyze the pros and cons of each option rationally, making correct choices every time.
14. Joeson is an artistic person and won the "Best Debator" award in the competition.
15. Da Vinci was an artistic person and created many great paintings and sculptures during his life time.
16. Sir Run Run Shaw is generous in helping charities and assisting the needy in the society.

Vocabulary Exercise 4

Fill in the blanks with the suitable words.

Everyone in this class has different personalities. Mary is very (1) proactive, she always plans and prepares everything beforehand and will never leave anything until last minute. Edward is (2) creative on the other hand, he can think of good and impressive story plots which bring him several writing competitions rewards last year. Ryan is (3) intelligent and (4) diligent who is loved by every teacher as he pays full attention in class and gets good grades in most of the subjects. Connie is a (5) considerate person, she will not only care about of herself, and she cares people around her very much. Her parents are (6) generous as they buy snacks for her friends all the time. Josh is the most (7) optimistic person in class, he will only think of the positive side of everything.

Vocabulary Exercise 5

Fill in the blanks with the suitable words.

The typhoon didn't cause much damage to the area as their President had taken (1) proactive precautions before the devastating wind and rain came.

Winson is not that (2) quick-witted/intelligent and clever but he is definitely (3) diligent and industrious so his teachers are willing to give (4) generous help before the exam. Although he faces mountains of homework every weekend, he is (5) optimistic and tackles it one by one happily. His elder brother is very (6) considerate as he does not play loud music when Winson is doing his homework. His (7) proactive dad tries to teach Winson 6A Maths during the summer holiday, hoping that he can cope well in Year 6. Winson's academic work is not excellent but he is very (8) creative in making things. Last year, he was the Champion in the Lego competition. He displayed his (9) unyielding character when he was with his building blocks. He could break everything down and rebuilt them again and again.